Bravery & Friendship will always help thru life. No matter if someone is weak, or scared they will increase that opportunity to fight for themselves.

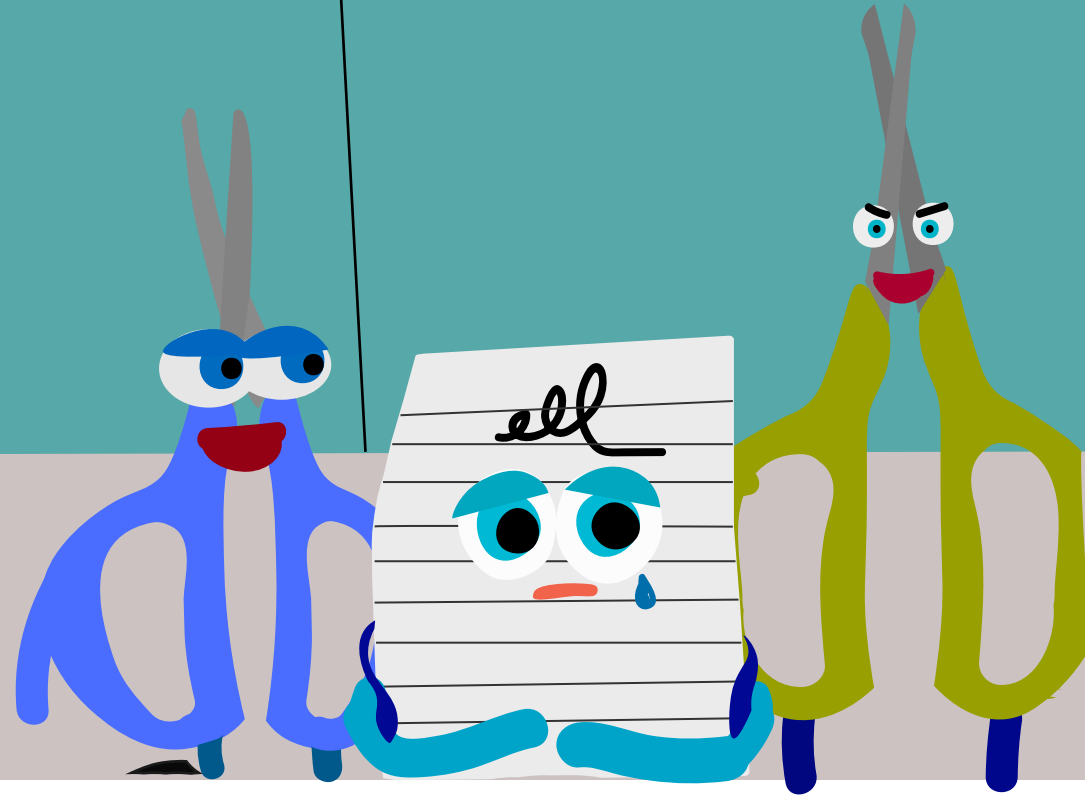

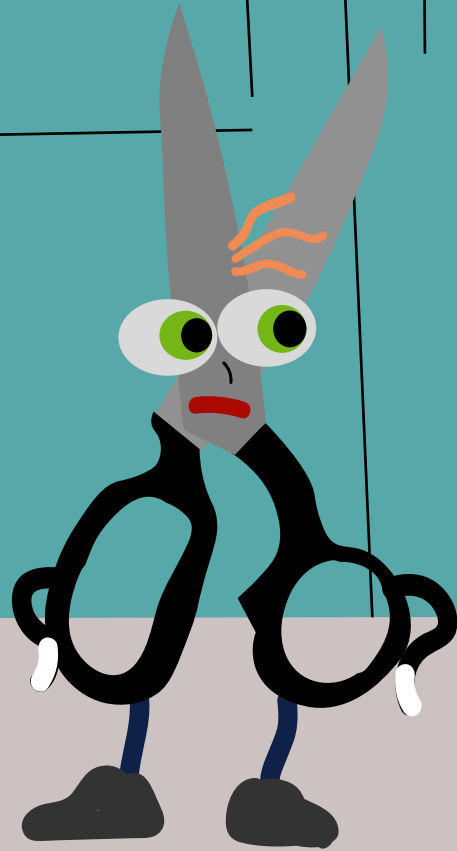

Bob the paper is so excited to start the first day of school, but was already scared when he entered the school because of what was happening inside.

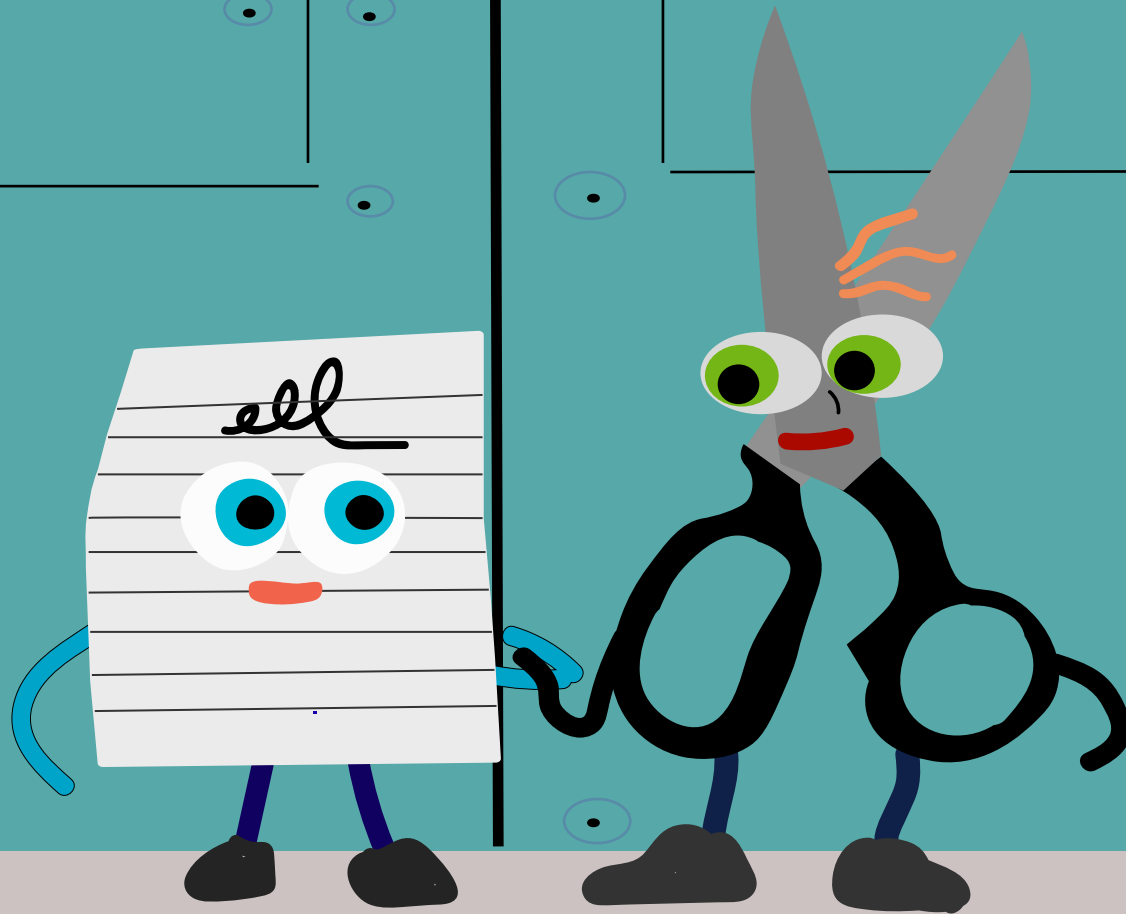

All of a sudden, a bunch of scissors started staring at him while walking in the hallway.

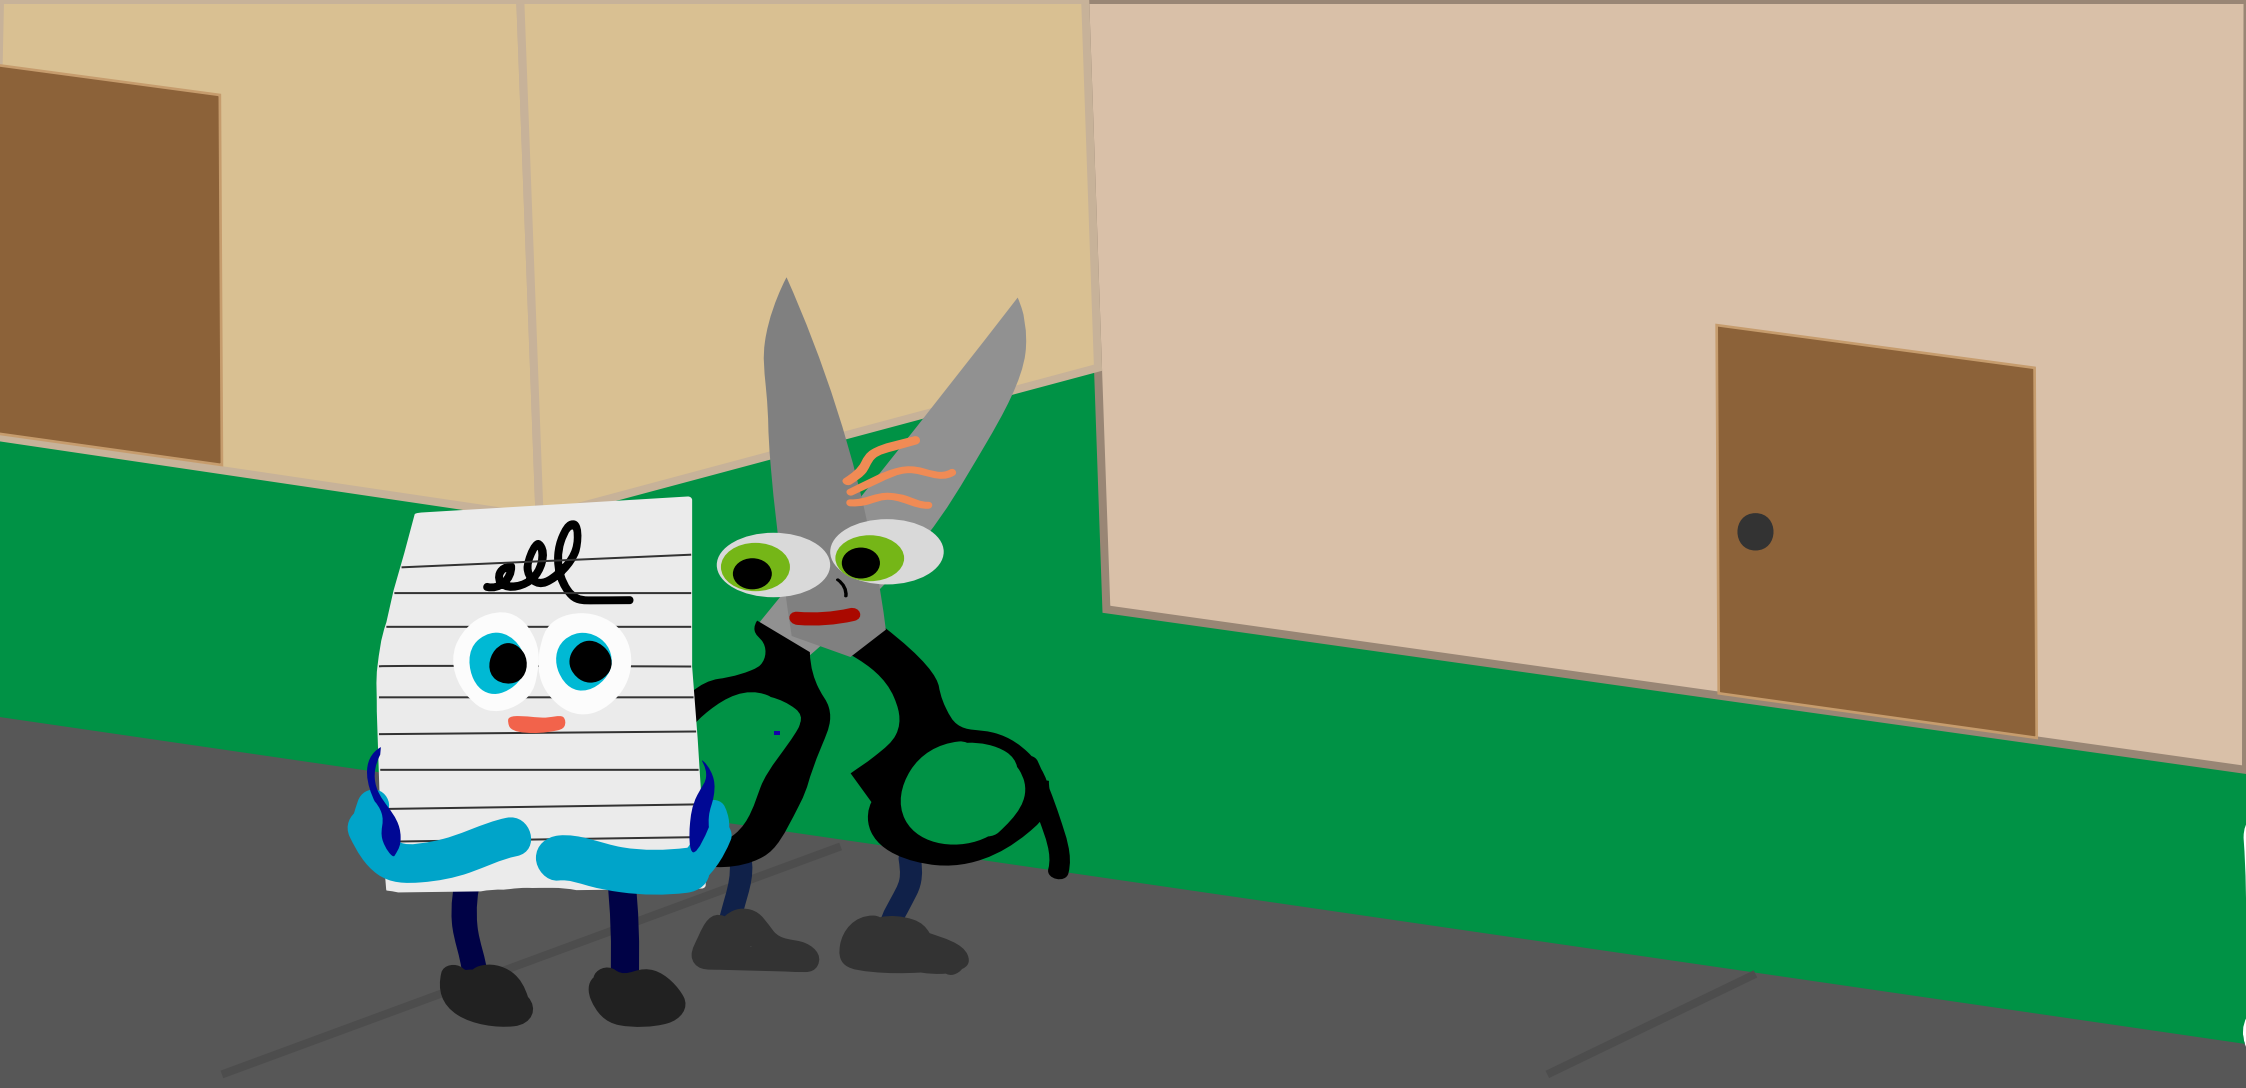

Bob just ignored those scissors and kept on walking. At the end of the hall, he saw another group of scissors; thinking they were nice, and walked up to them. But they started bullying him.

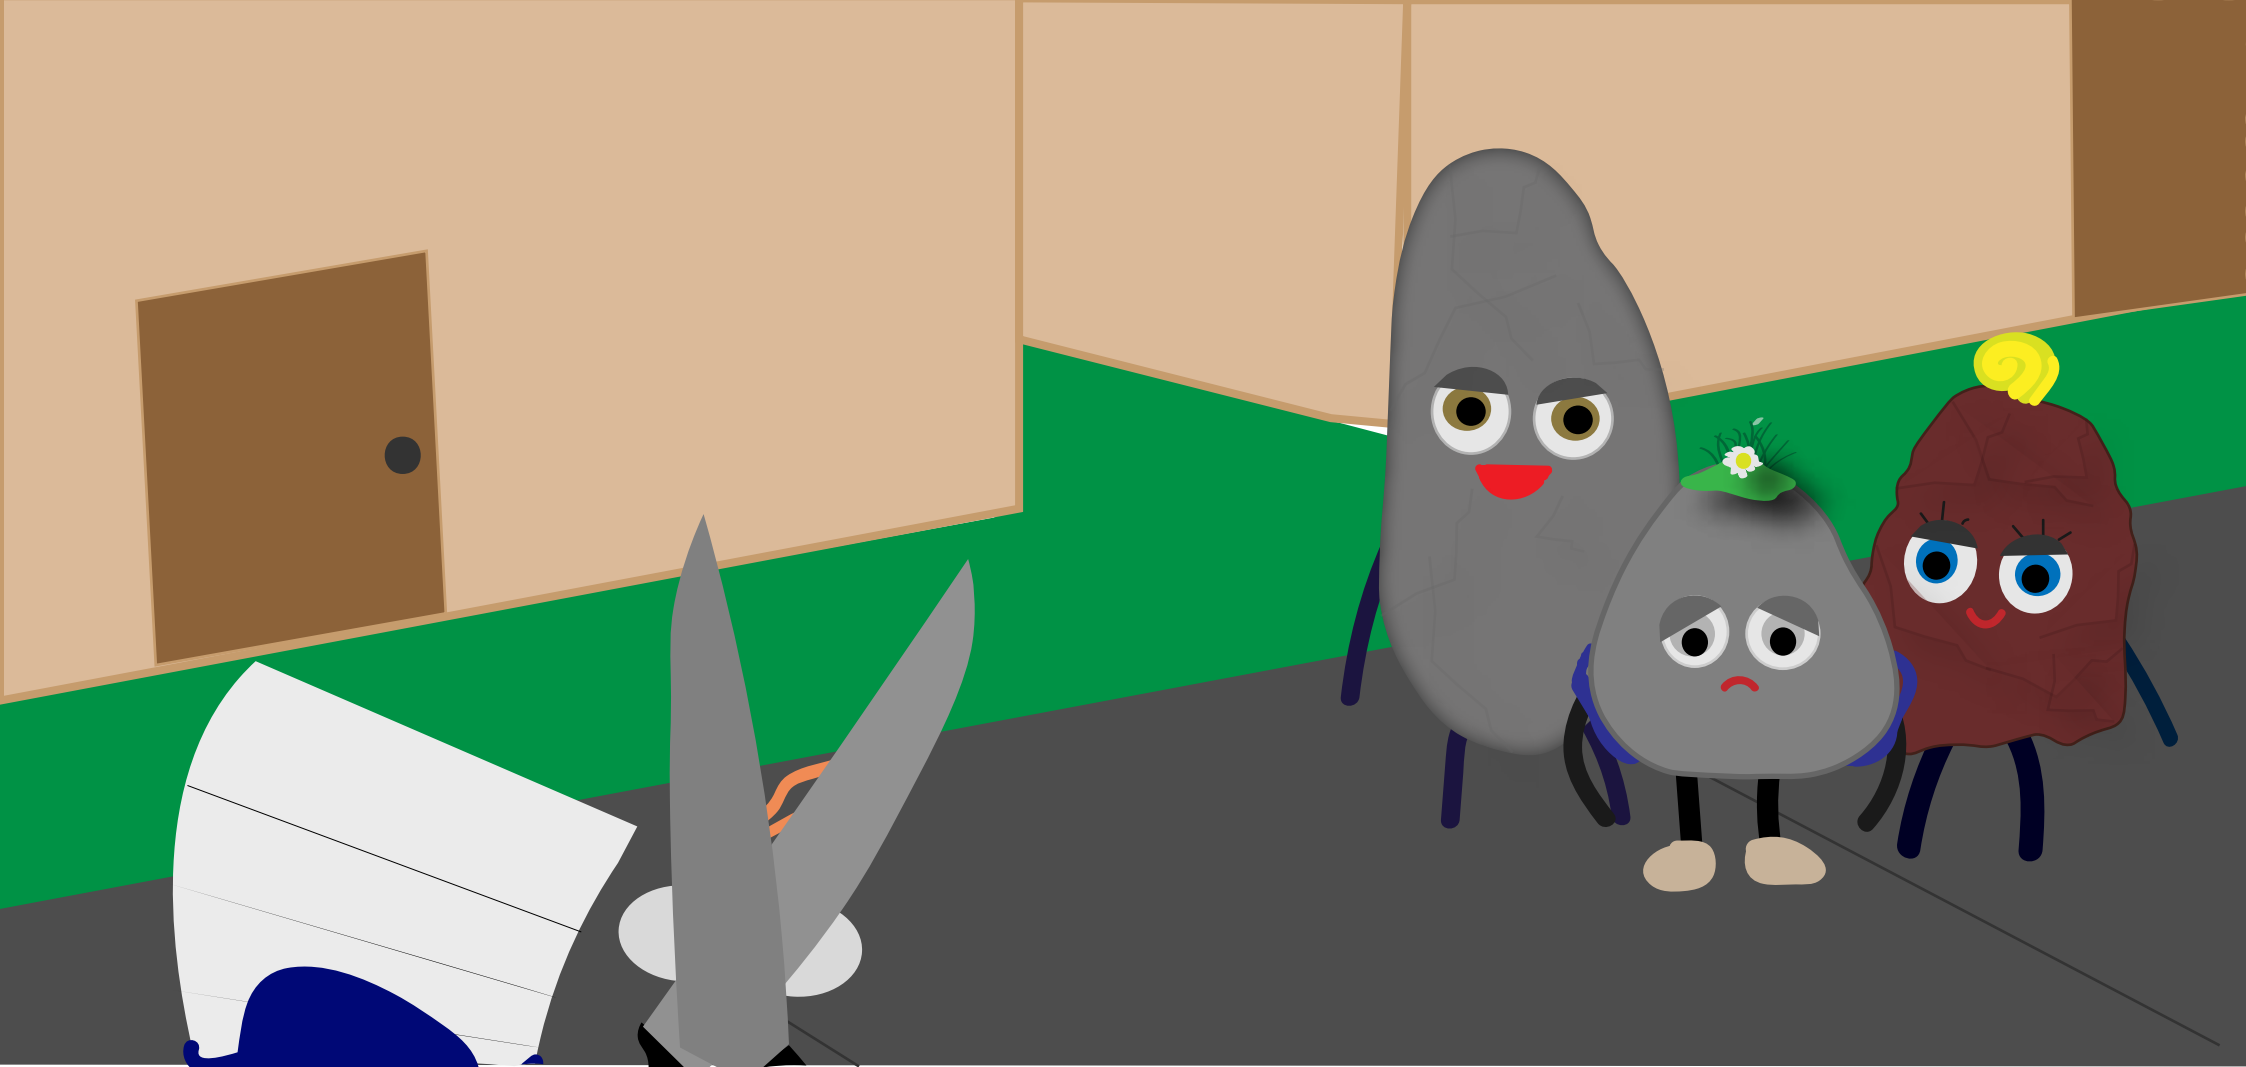

Bob started crying for what they're doing to him, so Sam the scissors saw what was happening to the poor little fellow and stood up to those bullies to save him.

Bob saw Sam the scissors; thinking he was going to get bullied by him too, but he helped him instead. Sam was so brave when facing them, that they ran away.

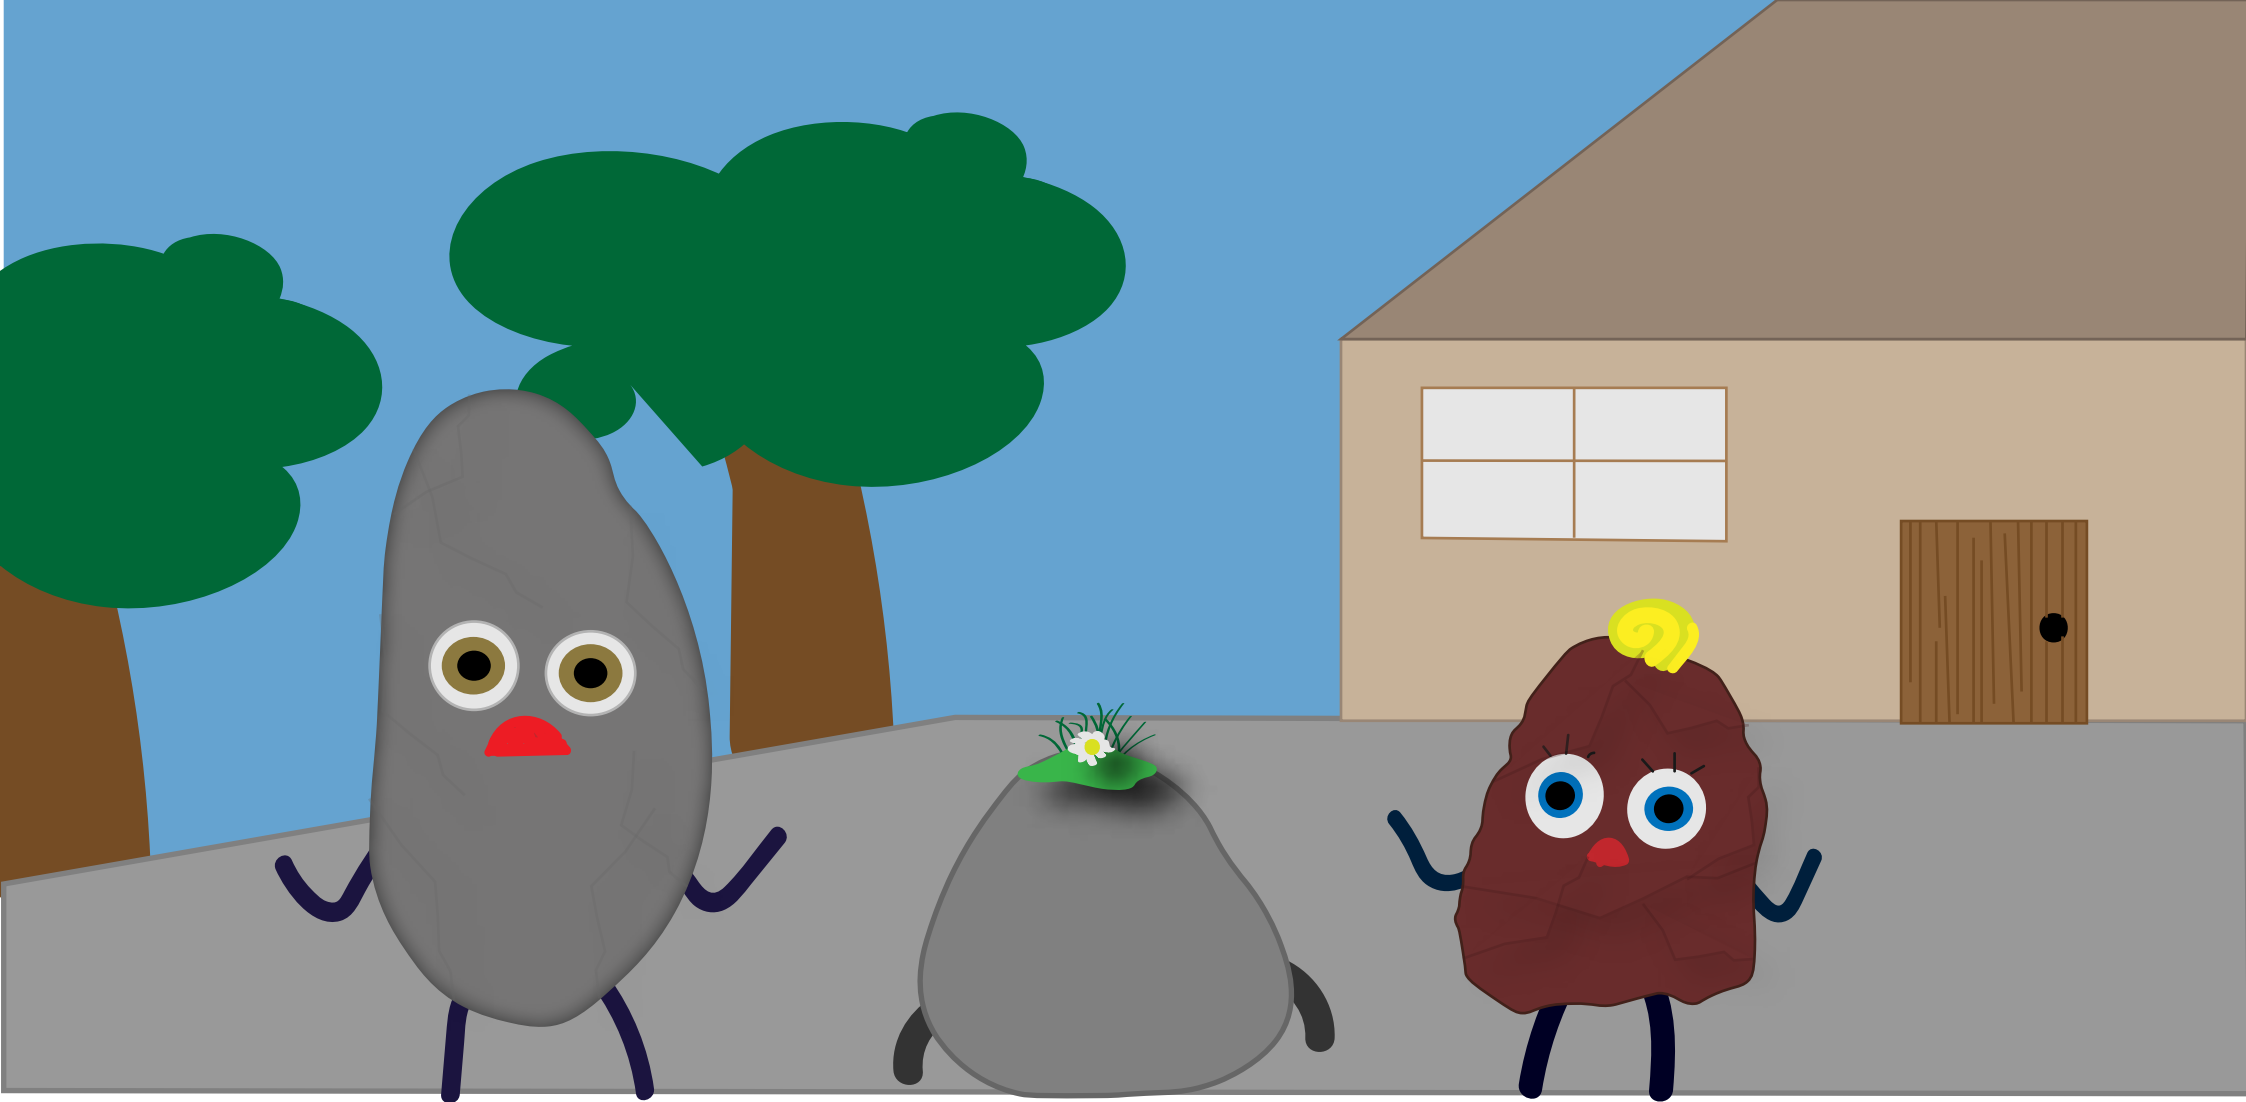

After a long day at school, they walked home together and saw something ahead.

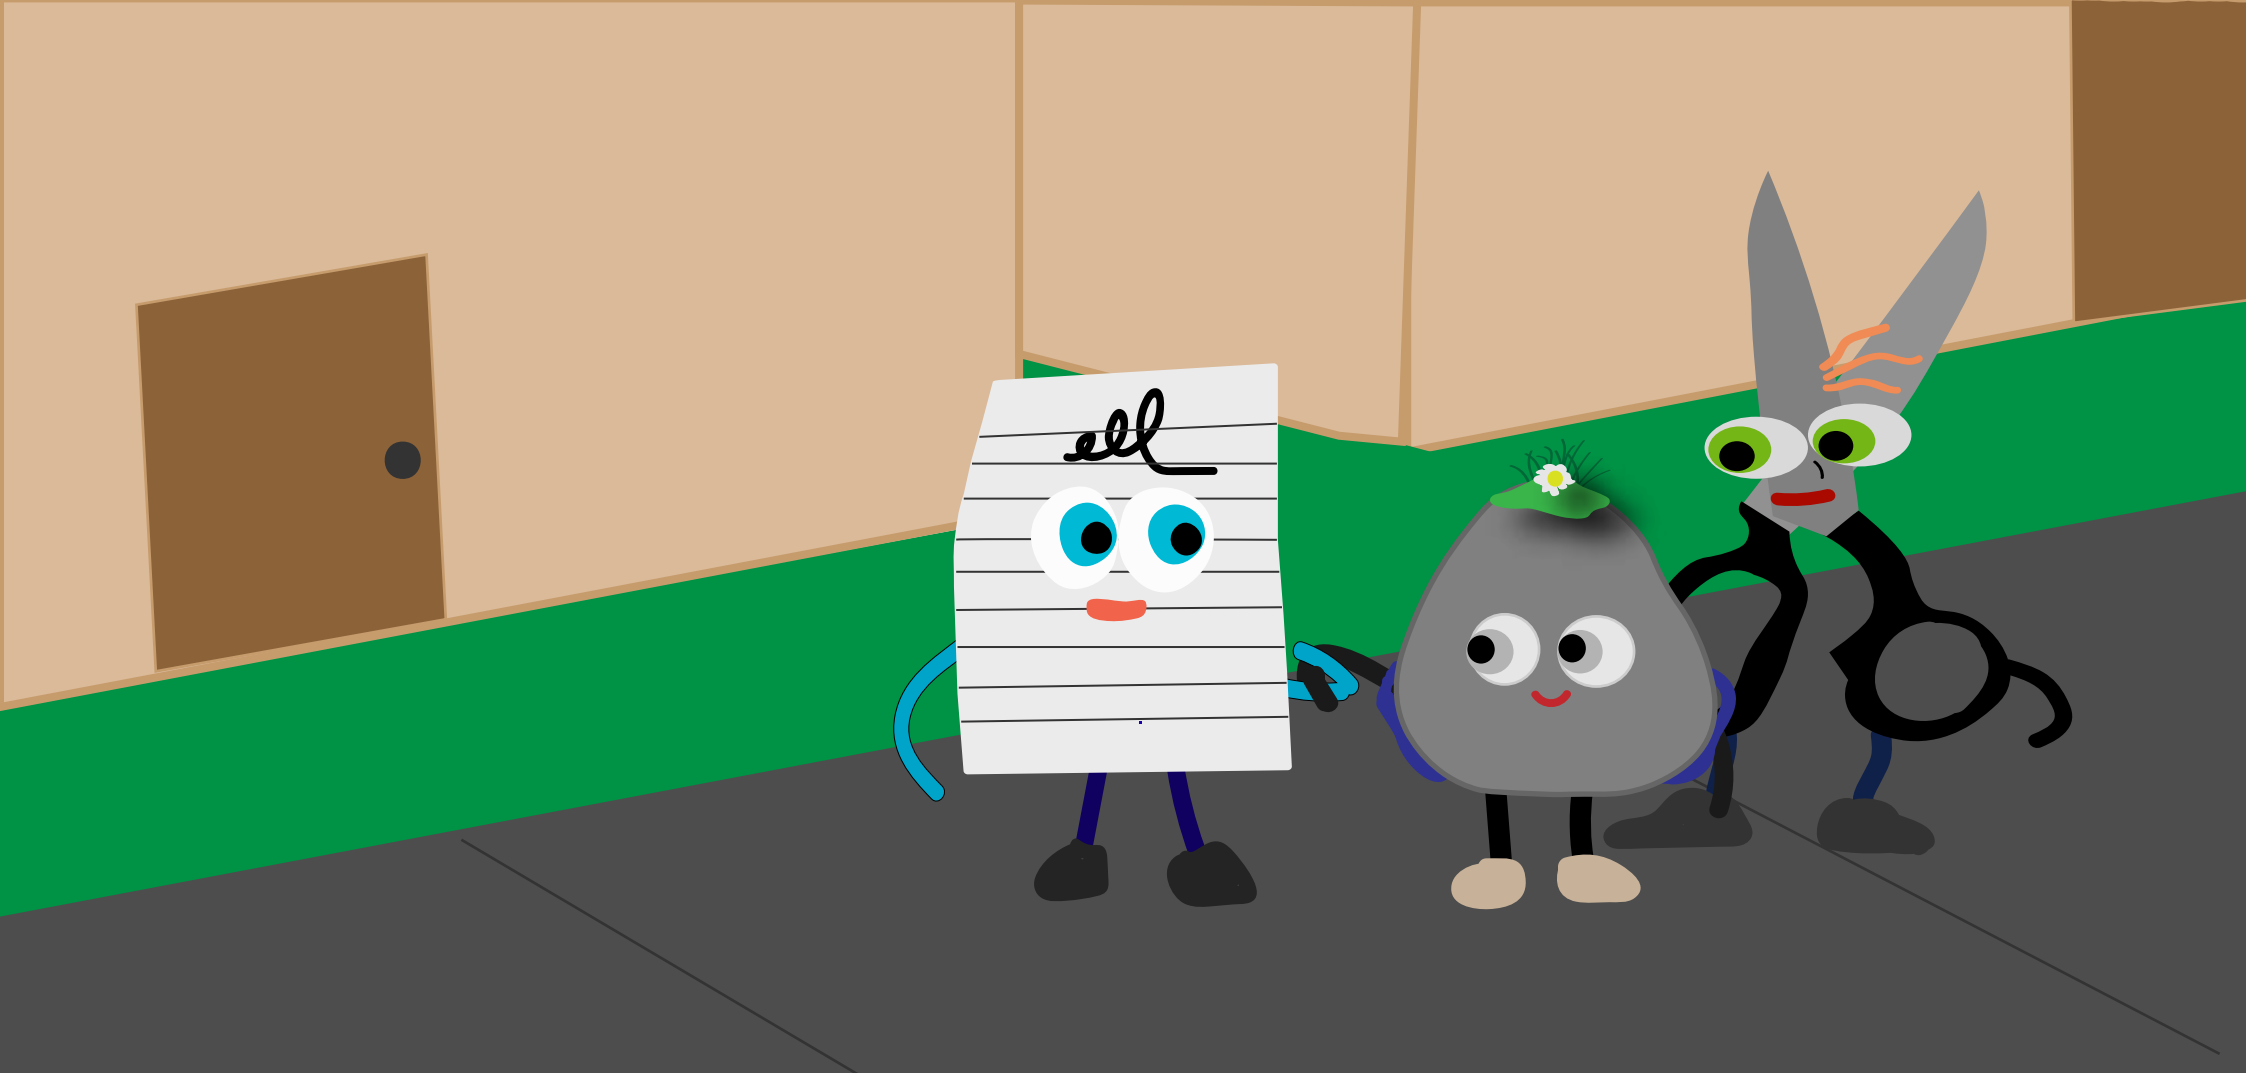

Both saw a rock named Aiden getting bullied by two other rocks. Bob was mad and stood up for him. They were scared and ran away from him.

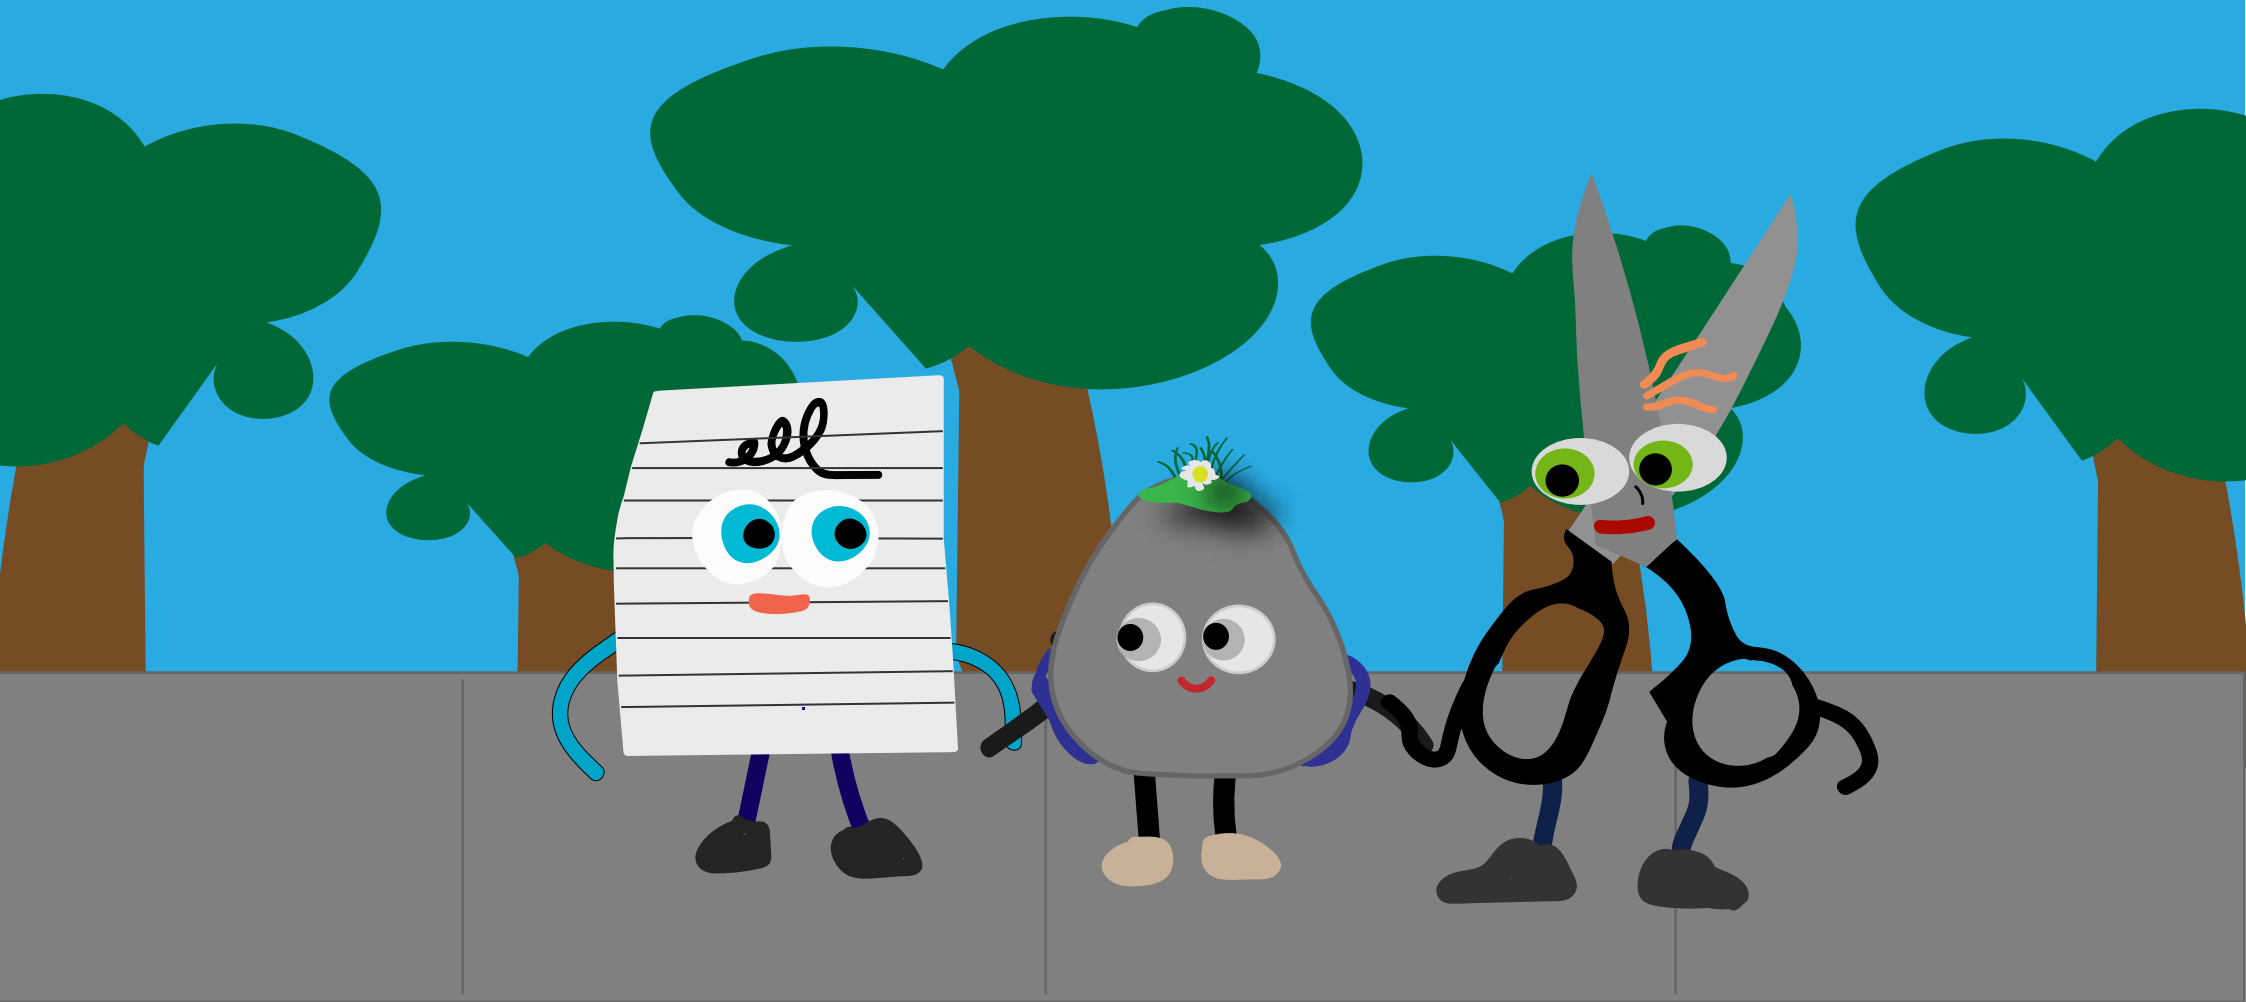

Aiden was wondering why they were running away and why they stopped. Until he saw who was behind him.

Aiden was happy now that Bob had helped him get rid of those bullies. And so the three became friends.

As the day passed by, the three friends walked home together very happy with their problems pushed aside.
